
Table of contents:

1. Introduction, CER
2. Overview of rail freight markets – Europe and beyond, Christoph Wolff

Part 1 – The politics of rail freight: regulation, taxation and investment

3. Infrastructure charging – theory and practice, Chris Nash
4. Rail companies and capital markets, James Runde
5. Developing European freight corridors making the Rotterdam-Genoa rail freight corridor a success for the European economy, Karla Peijs
6. Developing European freight corridors with ERTMS - new European political initiatives, Karel Vinck
7. The Development of Russia's Railways - long-term prospects, Vladimir Yakunin

Part 2 – The business of rail freight: how to serve customers better

8. In the beginning was the road - present and future perspectives for combined transport, Hans-Jörg Bertschi
9. A competitive transport system – priorities for operators, Klaus Kremper
10. Entering new markets – problems and solutions, Antoine Hurel
11. Rail freight – an alignment of opportunity or a victim of external threats?, Graham Smith
12. Rail freight prospects in Central and Eastern Europe, Eva Molnar

Part 3 – Innovation and technology: a business opportunity

13. Technical Requirements and innovations in rail freight, Hans Schabert
14. Using new business processes and supporting systems to improve quality and increase productivity Eldon Horsman

The book is available at the publisher