

SUPPLEMENT TO MANUAL

OF THE

American Railway Engineering Association

1912

ADDENDA TO EDITION OF 1911

Published by
AMERICAN RAILWAY ENGINEERING ASSOCIATION
900 South Michigan Avenue
CHICAGO, ILL.

CONTENTS

	Page
Foreword	5
General Rules for the Publication of the Manual	6

Ballast.

Definitions	7
Proper Depth of Ballast	7
Physical Tests of Stone for Ballast	7, 8

Ties.

Tie Renewals in Continuous Stretches Versus Single Tie Renewals....	9
---	---

Rail.

Specifications for Carbon-Steel Rails	11-17
---	-------

Track.

General Specifications for Frogs, Crossings and Switches.....	19-27
Lengths of Switches	27
Plans of Frogs and Switches	28-32

Masonry.

Method of Repairing Defective Work or Worn Surfaces of Concrete.	33, 34
Method of Depositing Concrete Under Water	34

Signals and Interlocking.

Table of Insulation Resistances	35
---------------------------------------	----

Records and Accounts.

Reasons for Maintaining a Storehouse	37
--	----

Rules and Organization.

Instructions Regarding the Conduct of Work	39-41
--	-------

Water Service.

General Specifications for Steel Water and Oil Tanks.....	43, 44
---	--------

Yards and Terminals.

Typical Situation Plans for Division Engine Terminals	45
---	----

Iron and Steel Structures.

Specifications for the Erection of Railroad Bridges.....	47-51
--	-------

Electricity.

Definitions	53
Specifications for Overhead Crossings of Electric Light and Power Lines	53-61
Specifications for Galvanizing Iron or Steel	61-63
Clearance Lines	64

Wood Preservation.

Grouping of Timber for Antiseptic Treatment	65
Standard Specifications for Creosote Oil	65-67

Grading of Lumber.

Classification and Grading Rules for Douglas Fir.....	69-76
Specifications for Douglas Fir Structural Timbers.....	76-85
Classification, Grading and Dressing Rules for Northern Pine, includ- ing White and Norway Pine and Hemlock.....	85-97
Classification, Grading and Dressing Rules for Southern Yellow Pine	97-104
Bridge and Trestle Timbers.....	104-106
Building Lumber	106-118
Standard Specifications for Construction Oak Timbers.....	118-129