

Rubber and Railways.

(Second and Revised Edition.)

By

COLIN MACBETH, M.I.A.E., M.S.A.E., F.I.R.I.,
Consulting Mechanical Engineer to the British Rubber Publicity Association.

Issued by the British Rubber Publicity Association*
(Incorporated in England),
19, Fenchurch Street, London, E.C.3.

DOCUMENTATIEDIENST
EN
BIBLIOTHEEK

SERVICE DE DOCUMENTATION
ET BIBLIOTHÈQUE

A non-trading organisation formed by rubber plantation interests to promote and encourage the uses of rubber.*

September, 1939.

CONTENTS.

	PAGE NO.
FOREWORD BY SIR HAROLD HARTLEY, C.B.E., M.C., MA., F.R.S.	5
AUTHOR'S INTRODUCTION (including a brief outline of Rubber Production and Manufacture) ...	7
SECTION 1. Rubber Buffing and Draw-bar Springs ...	15
The Development of the Concentric India Rubber Spring	16
Some principles in the use of Concentric Rubber Springs	20
Impact of Railway Vehicles in Relation to Buffer Resistance—(Glascodine) ...	27
SECTION 2. Rubber Buffing and Draw-gear for Locomotives and Tenders	39
SECTION 3. Independent Side Buffer and Draw-gear on Carriages	51
SECTION 4. Side Buffers—Balanced	61
SECTION 5. Central Buffing and Draw-gear for Carriages	69
SECTION 6. Wagon Buffing and Draw-gear	81
SECTION 7. Rubber Auxiliary Bearing Springs on Locomotives and Tenders... ..	99
SECTION 8. Auxiliary Bearing Springs on Carriages and Wagons	121
SECTION 9. Bogie Bolster Mounting Rubbers	135
SECTION 10. Railway Rubber Hose and Allied Rubber parts	145
SECTION 11. Miscellaneous Locomotive Rubbers ...	165
SECTION 12. Rubber in Coachwork	171
SECTION 13. The Application of Pneumatic tyres to Railway wheels	189
SECTION 14. The Range of "Micheline" Rail-Car Units	197
SECTION 15. Bugatti High Speed Rail Motors	207
SECTION 16. Standards and Standard Tests for Rubber Goods	216