

Railroad Retirement Board

Legal Opinions

Rulings in the Administration of the Railroad Retirement Act and the Railroad Unemployment Insurance Act
(1961)

INDEX

ANNUITY	Ruling No.	Page No.
Disability Annuity—
Remuneration as public officer is to be included in determining earnings for purposes of disability annuity work deduction provisions even though motive in serving is a desire to render public service and remuneration is in a negligible amount	L-61-222	51
Employee Annuity—
Annuitant, in dire need, for whom a guardian had been acting can be paid annuity after court declared his competency to be restored, pending investigation as to his capacity which is still in question	L-61-234	55
Annuity may be paid while individual is carried on payroll to receive payment for accrued vacation and sick leave	L-61 284	61
Where annuitant died at 10:10 p.m. on July 31, 1961, in mountain standard time zone, that time controls and annuity is not payable for July	L-61-368	90
Minimum Annuity—
Action taken by annuitant in Yugoslavia effected valid adoption of child and child may be taken into account to increase his annuity under social security minimum provision	L-61-360	88
Claimant cannot qualify as widow of deceased employee under Virginia law because her marriage is void but she may be treated as his widow for purposes of the social security minimum provision of the Railroad Retirement Act	L-61-346	76
Employee who was awarded an occupational disability annuity before she reached age 62 must be considered for the purposes of the social security minimum provision to have applied for reduced old-age benefits under the Social Security Act when she attained age 62	L-61-156	39
In the application of the social security minimum provision of the Railroad Retirement Act the benefit amounts under the Social Security Act are not rounded to the next higher multiple of 10 cents before the 110 per cent factor is applied	L-61-143	37
Mexican divorce did not, under laws of Florida, leave annuitant free to marry but individual with whom he attempted marriage may be taken into account as his wife to increase his annuity under the social security minimum provision	L-61-442	94
Parent's Annuity—
Individual who was receiving widow's annuity can upon death of her son receive parent's annuity which is larger but widow's annuity must terminate	L-61-274	60
Spouse's Annuity—
Mexican divorce is not valid, because of lack of jurisdictional basis, under applicable laws of Arkansas and does not terminate spouse's annuity	L-61-60	7
Restriction on remarriage in New York divorce decree does not preclude a valid marriage being effected in New Jersey. Suspended but not vacated court order provides basis for "living with" finding	L-61-351	80
Widow's Annuity—
Reinstatement of widow's annuity allowed after annulment in Texas of remarriage which terminated annuity	L-61-23	4
Service rendered by recipient of widow's annuity as caretaker of a cottage owned by a railway company constitutes service to an "employer" and requires deduction from her annuity	L-61-315	67

	Ruling No.	Page No.
ANNUITY—Continued
Widow's Annuity—
Widow's insurance annuity based in part on military service which is the basis or a partial basis for periodic gratuitous grants under another Act of Congress, is reduced in the proportion that the increase in the years of service of the employee the military service produced, bears to his total years of service.....	L-61-499	104
Widow's insurance annuity may be reinstated as of the day following the annulment of voidable marriage.....	L-61-517	105
CHILDREN'S RIGHTS TO BENEFITS
Arkansas "void-marriage statute" not applicable to legitimate children of illicit relationship.....	L-61-66	12
Child of employee qualifies as such, through application of laws of Illinois, even though at time of conception mother, who later married employee, was married to another.....	L-61-5. 1	1
Child may qualify as such under Arkansas law as of date of interlocutory decree of adoption but only upon final decree.	L-61-174	42
Child may qualify as such under laws of Florida through doctrine of equitable adoption.....	L-61-297	65
Children born during wedlock qualify as such under Kentucky law even though employee disavowed paternity.....	L-61-263	58
Children born out of wedlock who were acknowledged by father can qualify as such under the laws of New Mexico..	L-61-331	69
Claimants cannot qualify as children of the deceased employee under the laws of California.....	L-61-341	71
Mexican decree of adoption upon application of California law creates status of stepchild.....	L-61-199	45
COMPENSATION
Certain workmen's compensation payments received by an employee may not be credited as pay for time lost.....	L-61-322	69
Dismissal allowance payments under the Burlington Conditions are pay for time lost notwithstanding abolition of the claimant's seniority district.....	L-61-356	85
Identifiable period with respect to which pay for time lost is received extends from time of injury to verdict or judgment in the absence of an agreement to the contrary or cessation of status as employee.....	L-61-452	96
Payments for accumulated time under a "local side agreement" are compensation under the Railroad Unemployment Insurance Act.....	L-61-123	24
DEATH
Judgment secured by wife in New York dissolves marriage by divorce and is not a finding of death.....	L-61-347	78
EMPLOYEE
Passenger station operator is employee under the Railroad Retirement Act rather than independent contractor.....	L-61-85. 1	16
Services performed by individual in the course of his general trucking or drayage business for Railway Express Agency do not constitute employee services within the meaning of the Railroad Retirement Act.....	L-61-126	27
Staff members of the Canadian Railway Board of Adjustment are not employees under the Railroad Retirement Act.	L-61-105	20
EMPLOYER
Newly formed company to be created as a result of a reorganization of a debtor company to perform, as a subsidiary, all the debtor company's railroad operations will be an employer under the Railroad Retirement and Railroad Unemployment Insurance Acts.....	L-61-200	46
Railroad company which has been authorized as a common carrier of freight by motor transport is an employer with respect to its employees engaged solely in that operation..	L-61-437	93
Transport company, which is wholly owned by a railroad company and is engaged exclusively in trucking service and in leasing motor vehicle trailers and tractors to shippers, is not an employer under the Railroad Retirement and Railroad Unemployment Insurance Acts.....	L-61-13	3

EMPLOYMENT RELATION

	Ruling No.	Page No.
Disability not reason for failure of employer to call individual to service and he cannot qualify for an "employment relation" on the enactment date.....	L-61-120	22

INCOMPETENT

The portion of an incompetent's annuity which is attributed to his minor children under the social security minimum provision may be paid to their custodian if the court approves an assignment by his guardian.....	L-61-482	100
---	----------	-----

LIVING WITH

Suspended but not vacated court order provides basis for "living with" finding.....	L-61-351	80
Wife who left her husband some 7 years before his death cannot meet the "living with" requirement even though she may have been justified in leaving him.....	L-61-176	43

LUMP-SUM DEATH BENEFIT

Promissory note given in payment of burial expenses represents payment to provide basis for payment of the lump-sum benefit to obligor.....	L-61-469	97
---	----------	----

MARRIAGE AND DIVORCE

Claimant can qualify as widow, through a "putative marriage" under California law.....	L-61-294	63
Claimant under Texas law, is estopped or barred by laches because of Mexican divorce from denying the validity of her subsequent remarriage.....	L-61-75	15
Common-law marriage arose, under Pennsylvania law, after claimant's first husband died.....	L-61-447	95
Common-law relationship effected valid marriage under Kansas law.....	L-61-232	52
Common-law relationship effected valid marriage under the laws of Pennsylvania.....	L-61-32	5
Doctrine of estoppel applicable under Tennessee law to qualify claimant as widow where she lived with employee about 20 years following their marriage ceremony and about 17 years after the dissolution of an earlier marriage through the death of her husband.....	L-61-65	10
Marriage became effective under Wisconsin law after impediment consisting of previous marriage of party was removed by dissolution of earlier marriage.....	L-61-171	41
Marriage in Nevada after interlocutory divorce decree but before final decree granted by California Court does not constitute a legal marriage but claimant may qualify as spouse under California law as a putative wife.....	L-61-485	101
Mexican decree of annulment was not effective, under California law, to dissolve marriage with consequence that annuitant was not free to marry claimant and she cannot qualify for spouse's annuity.....	L-61-245	56
Mexican divorce did not, under laws of Florida, leave annuitant free to marry but individual with whom he attempted marriage may be taken into account as his wife to increase his annuity under the social security minimum provision....	L-61-442	94
Mexican divorce is invalid under New York law.....	L-61-98.1	18
Mexican divorce is not valid because of lack of jurisdictional basis under applicable laws of Arkansas and does not terminate spouse's annuity.....	L-61-60	7
Nevada divorce is not binding on Arizona courts if evidence establishes that individual who obtained divorce decree did not establish a domicile in Nevada.....	L-61-141	34
Restriction on remarriage in New York divorce decree does not preclude a valid marriage being effected in New Jersey....	L-61-351	80

MILITARY SERVICE

Widow's annuity based in part on military service which is the basis or partial basis for periodic gratuitous grants under another Act of Congress, is reduced in the proportion that the increase in the years of service of the employee the military service produces, bears to his total years of service.....	L-61-499	104
--	----------	-----

MISCELLANEOUS

	Ruling No.
Annuitant, in dire need, for whom a guardian had been acting, can be paid annuity after court declared his competency to be restored, pending an investigation as to his capacity which is still in question.....	L-61-234
Board has no authority to comply with order of State court in divorce proceedings directing it to pay one-half of "all sums deposited in the railroad retirement fund" on behalf of the employee to his wife.....	L-61-219
Railroad employees have no "accumulated funds" for retirement purposes under the Railroad Retirement Act which constitute estate or property in bankruptcy proceedings....	L-61-159

SICKNESS BENEFITS

Board has right to reimbursement for payment of sickness benefits out of recovery from doctor and hospital for negligence.....	L-61-197
Board not entitled to reimbursement for payment of sickness benefits from recovery under employee's insurance policy providing protection against uninsured motorist.....	L-61-430
Board's right to recovery for payment of sickness benefits from tort-feasor is not dependent upon notification.....	L-61-344
Extra clerks who are compensated under a monthly rate of pay do not receive remuneration attributable to holiday which would prevent such holiday from being a "day of unemployment" or a "day of sickness".....	L-61-62
Recovery for sickness benefits from workmen's compensation payments will be reduced to a point where claimant will not, because of attorney's fee, suffer a loss because of prosecution of claim for workmen's compensation.....	L-61-131
Reimbursement right of Board for payment of sickness benefits extends to widow's recovery but is limited to the part of the damages that compensate for the employee's loss rather than for the widow's loss by reason of his death.....	L-61-74
Restriction as to "day of sickness" or "unemployment" on employees in road service who are standing by or laying over between regular assigned trips or tours of duty does not apply to employees in yard service.....	L-61-354

UNEMPLOYMENT BENEFITS

Benefits under the Temporary Extended Railroad Unemployment Insurance Benefits Act of 1961 are not payable to an individual for days in a benefit year with respect to which he is not a qualified employee under the Railroad Unemployment Insurance Act.....	L-61-480
Extra clerks who are compensated under a monthly rate of pay do not receive remuneration attributable to holiday which would prevent such holiday from being a "day of unemployment" or a "day of sickness".....	L-61-62
In determining whether payment should be made under the Temporary Extended Railroad Unemployment Insurance Benefits Act of 1961 or the Temporary Extended Unemployment Compensation Act of 1961 the filing dates are controlling and payment should be made under that Act under which the individual first filed a claim.....	L-61-421
Payments for accumulated time under "local side agreement" constitute compensation under Railroad Unemployment Insurance Act and employee not entitled to unemployment benefits during period of receipt.....	L-61-121
Restriction as to "day of sickness" or "unemployment" on employees in road service who are standing by or laying over between regularly assigned trips or tours of duty does not apply to employees in yard service.....	L-61-35
Unemployment benefits cannot be paid in the benefit year 1960-61 under the Temporary Extended Railroad Unemployment Insurance Benefits Act of 1961 (Public Law 87-7) to an individual who has already received in such year unemployment benefits amounting to 195 times his benefit rate for the year.	L-61-211